Department of Human Services Points

If you were in a remote location, you could contact the ABS at more than 600 Department of Human Services (DHS) agents, access points and remote service centres across Australia.

Requests for replacement materials closed on 20 October 2017.

In these locations, if you had a Secure Access Code from the ABS you could participate in the survey by:

- Using telephones to call the survey Information Line, and/or
- Using self-service computers with the internet to access the ABS website.

Details of DHS service points are available at findus.humanservices.gov.au

Remote Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Community Visits

The ABS visited about 200 remote locations to support areas with less regular or accessible postal delivery. These visits were planned in consultation with local communities to ensure cultural sensitivities are observed. Visit dates were subject to change.

The ABS visited the following communities from 25 to 29 September.
